

Vegas Shooting By Stephen Paddock 2017

News Reports Quotes and Photos

- The police have found a total of 47 firearms in his two houses and his hotel suite. Jill A. Snyder, the special agent in charge of the San Francisco office of the federal Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, said that almost all had been traced, and that they had been bought in Nevada, Utah, California and Texas.
- Ms. Danley was considered a suspect, he said, "Currently she's a person of interest." SHE SHOULD LAWYER UP
- Mr. Paddock worked for the federal government for roughly 10 years, from 1975 to 1985, a spokeswoman for the Office of Personnel Management confirmed.
- Investigators unearthed multiple job applications, with Mr. Paddock's fingerprints on file, as part of records reflecting his employment as a letter carrier for the Postal Service in the mid-1970s; as an Internal Revenue Service agent from 1978 to 1984; and as an auditor focused on defense contracts, a job he held until 1985. He also worked in the 1980s for one of the companies that later combined to form Lockheed Martin, the aerospace contractor.
- The cameras — apparently intended to warn of approaching threats — along with the 23 guns, hundreds of rounds of ammunition, and other equipment found in the gunman's hotel suite, suggested a thought-out plan
- Twelve of the rifles Mr. Paddock had in his luxury suite on the 32nd floor of the Mandalay Bay Resort and Casino were outfitted with a "bump stock," a device that enables a gun to fire hundreds of rounds per minute, like a machine gun
- According to a law enforcement official who was not authorized to discuss the matter publicly and spoke on the condition of anonymity, investigators also were looking into whether Mr. Paddock had planned an earlier attack in Las Vegas before deciding to target the concert Sunday night.
- Mr. Paddock checked in on Thursday and kept the "Do Not Disturb" sign on his door for the next three days, so no maids entered the rooms, according to a hotel worker, who also was not authorized to discuss the matter. Housekeepers are allowed to enter a room with such a sign only in the presence of a security guard, and it happens rarely, usually after several days,
- Senator John Thune, the third-ranking Republican in the Senate, told an NBC News reporter that lawmakers "ought to take a look at" conversion kits that can make guns more lethal. SAME FOR GOV
- The police have found a total of 47 firearms in his two houses and his hotel suite. Jill A. Snyder, the special agent in charge of the San Francisco office of the federal Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, said that almost all had been traced, and that they had been bought in Nevada, Utah, California and Texas.
- Officials say Las Vegas gunman Stephen Paddock had been stockpiling guns since 1982 and bought 33 firearms in the last year.
- Jill Snyder, the special agent in charge at the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms, tells "CBS This Morning" on Wednesday that Paddock purchased 33 firearms, mostly rifles, between October 2016 and Sept. 28, three days before he opened fire on a concert crowd. The attack killed 59 people and wounded more than 500.

- Snyder said authorities wouldn't get notified of the purchase of rifles, but would get notified if there was a multiple sale of two or more handguns in one purchase. Snyder said Paddock had rigged 12 semi-automatic rifles with devices that allowed the guns to fire like an automatic weapon. — AP writer Bob Lentz, Philadelphia IMPLING THAT IF GOV NEW THEY COULD HAVE STOPPED IT, BS

“She was sent away. She was [sent] away so that she will not be there to interfere with what he’s planning. ... So that he can plan what he is planning without interruptions,” she speculated.

Paddock, 64, wired $100,000 to an account in the Philippines in the week before Sunday’s shooting, multiple senior law enforcement officials earlier told NBC News. It was not known whether the money was for Danley, her family or another purpose.

The officials said Paddock gambled with at least $160,000 in the past several weeks at Las Vegas casinos.

WE SHOULD OUTLAW MONEY, AND GAMBLING, AND BEING RICH, THAT IS WHAT CAUSED THIS

Paddock was prescribed an anti-anxiety medication four months before carrying out his shooting atrocity

DID HE HAVE GLOVES ON OR IS THIS PIC AFTER INVESTIGATORS PUT ON GSR (GUN SHOT RESIDUE) PROTECTION, NOTICE THE Bi POD (TWO LEGS) ON RIFLES, NOT TRI PODS LIKE THE MEDIA IS CALLING THEM

This is pic where cops are looking up at shooter's location. Aim low when shooting from high ground, Aim high when shooting from low ground. This may have been a 1000 yard shot, no pistol will reach and most rifles will not be accurate at this distance.

Bump fire stock on a probable 5.56 rifle with a Surefire 100 round magazine. Notice NO shell casing on the floor, but we are told he fired hundreds of rounds?

This Looks like 308 magazine and appears too big for 223 or 556, this rifle is NOT equipped with a Bump Fire Stock, yet media is reporting he had 12 rifles with that stock, only one is seen.

You can also see several magazines that were stacked and ready for use and a couple of rifles with loaded magazines in them. You can also see a few empty casing of the fired rounds on the floor but NOT hundreds like the media is reporting.

LAS VEGAS—Jesus Campos had no firearm when he found Stephen Paddock and approached his room on the 32nd floor of Mandalay Bay on Sunday night.

Paddock, who had rigged cameras in the hallway and on the peephole of the door, saw Campos coming and fired through the door, hitting him in the leg, said Dave Hickey, president of the International Union, Security, Police and Fire Professionals of America. The union represents Campos and hundreds of security guards at Mandalay Bay.

When Campos was hit, he radioed casino dispatch and told them his location — and Paddock's.

*THIS SEEMS ODD, THIS GUY WAS SHOOTING MULTIPLE GUNS, OUT MULTIPLE WINDOWS, SPRAYING THE CROWD AND HAD THE TIME AND THE METAL AWARENESS TO CHECK CAMS, SEE A GUY OUTSIDE HIS DOOR AND SHOOT HIM IN THE MIDDLE OF THIS ATTACK? SOUNDS LIKE SUPERMAN?

Cops blew open the door 72 minutes after his murder spree began and found Paddock had shot himself dead *WHY DID IT TAKE OVER AN HOUR AFTER SHOOTING FOR COPS TO ENTER ROOM? BECAUSE GOV IS NOT FAST WHEN YOU NEED THEM AND IF YOU LIVE LIFE THINKING GOV WILL SAVE OR PROTECT YOU, YOU WILL END UP LIKE THE VICTIMS.

The pic above according to Lying media and Gov, was in front of room and had a cam set up to see if people were coming. The two waters and many plates appear to support the theory of TWO people.

THE PIC ABOVE: Why Paddock (pictured with girlfriend Marilou Danley, 62) shot up the crowd is unknown. He had no religious or political affiliations, no military background, and was known to have just a couple of handguns, his brother said

This is a picture of the shooter according to cops when they found him dead? With all the guns and ammo why did he stop shooting before cops entered? If he shot one guy through door earlier, then why not shoot at cops?
